Northwestern Oklahoma State University & the Northwestern Creativity Project present

"Picture My Weekend"
A Free Photography Workshop & Show

Runnymede Hotel in downtown Alva, Okla.

Special guests: Professional photographers
Mike Klemme of Enid & Jim Richey of Alva

Photography Workshop
Saturday, Aug. 2, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Photographers at all levels of knowledge are welcome to attend roundtable discussion sessions. Topics to be covered include:

* Introduction to Digital Photography, Manual Camera Settings for Your Digital Camera, Basic Photo Editing/Photo Sharing, and Two tips and tricks sessions to help everyone try various ways to improve their photographic skills.
* At 11 a.m., all participants will leave the Runnymede for a Photo Scavenger Hunt on the downtown square to put to use the information learned during the first two sessions of the day. Upon their return, the participants’ best photos will be downloaded for a slide show later in the afternoon.
* Lunch will be provided at noon so that participants can view the photos on display, visit with each other or Jim Richey, who will be available to talk about matting and framing.
* Mike Klemme will make a presentation at 4 p.m. for all participants.
* Participants may bring five framed photographs to have on display during the photography show Friday and Saturday. (May have more only if space is available.)

Photography Show (free & open to public)
Friday, Aug. 1, Reception for public, 7-9 p.m.
Saturday, Aug. 2, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Participants in Saturday’s workshop will have photography on display and for sale. The public is welcome to attend. The Max Ridgway Trio will provide music at Friday’s reception.

For additional information, to register and/or to volunteer to help facilitate the roundtable discussions, please contact Dr. Rod Murrow at (580) 327-8589 or rcmurrow@nwosu.edu. Information also is available online at www.nwosu.edu/graduate/creativity.